The Smith Maguire wedding was the nicest one we have been to in a long time. Every detail was perfection!! Our friends have not stopped talking about it. We just came back from a very fancy wedding in LaJolla, California. Your food was much much better and we all still talk about the galvanized buckets of water for our feet!! The setting is beautiful and you, Jackie and Andrew are wonderful. Thankyou again for everything. We have sent another couple to see you about planninga wedding sometime in October, the MacAllisters. Hope it all works out for all of you. Sincerely, Julie
