

Dear Jackie + Andrew -

We cannot find the words to thank you both enough for our most magical wedding weekend. Throughout the whole planning process, you answered all of our questions with such kindness and concern - we always felt so well taken care of. And when the weekend of our wedding came - our expectations were surpassed a million times over. You were by our sides at every moment making the most of each and every situation that arose. We feel that you both have truly found your calling in life and are so grateful that you were part of our wedding day. We feel like your family! Thank you again for lending us your wedding wisdom, expertise and allowing us to share your home!

With Love and Admiration -

Jessica + Andy
